Introduction to Zentangle

Three Classes to get you started

Instructor: Barb Round

Zentangle Class 1 is a pen-and-ink art process. Simple repetitive strokes- similar to those used in handwriting - combine to make complex-looking decorative patterns. Interesting to the eye, tangle patterns can enhance other projects, such as quilting, pottery, scrapbooking, card making and multi-media art.

Class Size 10

Sunday: June 15 9 – 12:30 and/or 1:30 pm 5:00 pm

Printmaking drop-in every Tuesday

Instructors: Dorothy Friesen, Lottie Anderson

If you have taken at least one printmaking workshop or are a seasoned printmaker/artist this is for you. The studio will be open for you to bring ideas you have. Work independently or take tutoring in a new printmaking technique; design prints from technique combinations, learn multiple plate registration techniques, mix your own custom colours

Tuesdays ongoing 10 am – 4:00pm (not July 1)

Paint that...Chair, table, or small cabinet ?

Instructor: Kathy Holmes

If you can carry it to the class we will help you refurbish an old piece of furniture. The two day workshop will take you through the process of using paint that requires NO prep work. Just clean the surface and start painting.

We will also do simple fabric recovering of your project if required.

Saturday August 9 and Sunday August 10. 10am – 4pm.

$50 plus supplies Discuss your project with the instructor

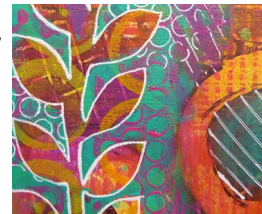

Wear appropriate paint clothing

Class Size 5-6

Monoprints –Stencils and Stamps

Instructors Lottie Anderson and Dorothy Friesen

More fun creating one of a kind monoprints using non-toxic Akua Inks and our studio etching press. You will use hand-made stamps from our collection and yours and learn a variety of stencil techniques in the studio to take home. The possibilities are endless. No prior experience necessary.

Sunday, July 27, 2014
