

Imagination Creation

Summer workshops for kids

Instructor: Aisha Alsop

Kindergarten to Grade One,

Goal is to have fun, be creative and create caterpillars or bugs out of cardboard and plaster gauze. This workshop is designed to help your child use their imagination creating from all sorts of things in our classroom. They will take home a monster to be proud of. A great break during the summer.

10am—11:30 am

Monday July 22 and/or August 19.

Cost $12.00/session includes material Bring snack and appropriate clothing

Grades 2-4,

Kids will create a monster bird with plaster gauze, & paint and decorate to their own taste. This afternoon will keep your child busy and using their imagination.

12:30—3:30 pm

Mondays July 22 and/or August 19

Cost $15.00/session includes material, bring snack and appropriate clothing

Grades 5—7,

Create a Monster Doll, or Bug. Students will build forms, plaster, paint and create from imagination. This is a great way for friends to spend summer time together or just to hang out and build something fun for their room.
